 - b) the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by Contractor does not constitute and will not upon giving of notice or lapse of time or both, constitute a breach or default under any other agreement to which Contractor is a Party or may be bound under;
 - c) no event has occurred and no condition exists that upon execution of this Agreement would constitute a default or Event of Default, as hereinafter defined. Contractor is not in violation of, and has not received notice of any claimed violation, of any term of any agreement or other instrument to which it is a Party or by which it or its property may be bound, which violation could materially and adversely affect the financial or legal condition of Contractor or the ability of Contractor to perform its obligations under this Agreement;

ARTICLE 17: DEFAULTS & REMEDIES

17.1 For purposes of this Agreement, the occurrence of any one (1) or more of the following shall constitute an 'Event of Default':

- a) if, at any time, any warranty, representation, or statement made or furnished by a Party to the other Party is not true and correct in any material respect; and
- b) if either Party fails (in whole or in part) to fulfill any of its obligations under this Agreement or to materially perform, observe or comply with any of the covenants, agreements or obligations hereunder after notice and opportunity to cure the same.

17.2 If an Event of Default occurs, the defaulting Party shall, upon written notice from the aggrieved Party, proceed to cure or remedy such default or breach within thirty (30) calendar days after receipt of such notice (the 'Cure Period'); provided, however, that if such default is incapable of being cured within said Cure Period, and the defaulting Party commences to cure the default within said Cure Period, provides a written request to extend the Cure Period, and proceeds with due diligence to cure the same, such Cure Period shall be extended (not unreasonably) for the length of time reasonably necessary to cure the default.

- 17.3 At any time during the Cure Period (or extension thereof), the aggrieved Party may request a written report on the status of the steps taken to cure the Event of Default, which shall be complied with by the breaching Party within ten (10) calendar days after receipt of the original request. At all times during a Cure Period or extension thereof, the defaulting Party, shall diligently follow through to completion all such steps necessary to remedy the Event of Default within the shortest possible time. In case such action is not taken or diligently pursued or the Event of Default is not cured or remedied within the aforementioned period, the aggrieved Party may exercise any rights or institute such proceedings at law or in equity as may be necessary or desirable in its opinion to cure and remedy such Event of Default, including termination of this Agreement.
- 17.4 The rights and remedies of the Parties, whether provided by law or in this Agreement, shall be cumulative and the exercise by any Party of any one or more of such remedies shall not preclude the exercise by such Party at the same time or different times, of any other remedies for the same Event of Default by the defaulting Party.
- 17.5 Any delay by any Party in instituting or prosecuting any actions or proceedings or asserting its rights under this Agreement shall not operate as a waiver of such rights in any way (it being the intent of this provision that such Party should not be constrained so as to avoid the risk of being deprived of or limited in the exercise of the remedies provided in this Agreement because of the Event of Default involved).
- 17.6 No waiver made by any Party with respect to any specific Event of Default by the other Party under this Agreement shall be construed as a waiver of rights with respect to any other Event of Default except to the extent specifically waived in the extent specifically waived in writing.

ARTICLE 18: SEVERABILITY

The provisions of this Agreement shall be deemed to be severable and the invalidity or unenforceability of any one or more provisions contained herein shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the other provisions hereof, and the remainder of this Agreement shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

This Agreement may be executed in counterpart originals, each of which shall be deemed to be an original with the same effect as if the signatures thereto were on the same instrument.
